

Circulation Executive Recruitment Services; Resumes

LEARNING More Circulation Idea Service will work with clients to help fill key circulation and marketing executive positions.

If you are looking to fill a circulation executive position, please contact Steve or Christie Learn. Our recruitment service is one of the best in the business. We know that your time is valuable, so we work hard to provide you with pre-screened candidates with the best qualifications and experience to fit your needs.

- ⇒ Since we regularly interact with newspapers and newspaper personnel across the country, we have many outstanding networking contacts.
- ⇒ We will discuss your needs and provide you with all the details on how our recruitment service works.
- ⇒ Our rates are reasonable and the fee payment structure is designed to work well with your budget.
- ⇒ We work with you to help ensure that your new hire is successful.

We even throw in two free days of consulting if one of our recommended candidates is hired.

If you are looking to advance your own circulation career, please send us your resume (and at least three professional references, if possible). Also, please include information about your job interest:

- ⇒ The type of job for which you're looking.
- ⇒ Approximate desired annual compensation range.
- ⇒ Size of newspaper preferred.
- ⇒ Areas of the country to which you would and would not want to relocate.

The preferred way to provide your resume and other information is to EMAIL a document in Word format.

Please send it to Steve Learn at the email address of circulationidea@yahoo.com

You can also mail the information to:

STEVE LEARN
Owner LEARNING More Circulation Idea Service
526 Alabama Street
Killen, Alabama 35645
Phone: 256.710.3390

All resumes and inquiries are held in strictest confidence.

For more information about the executive search program or to find out more about any current possible openings, please contact Steve.

